Mount Vernon, pray about this need and share with those who may be interested. Volunteers Urgently Needed for a 2-week trip to the Middle East to facilitate conversational English classes with our partner university there. Over 50 professors and staff are signed up to take classes for a second time, which means we have the opportunity to have more in-depth and meaningful conversations with these dear people. Other professors and staff are signing up for the first time.

Our past teams have done such an outstanding job that the university asks for more facilitators. Let's answer the call to this very open Unreached People Group. (And spend a night in Vienna) as part of your trip. Travel-inclusive dates: January 16-31, 2025.
